

- A full node verifies every block and transaction
- You will not receive any monetary benefit
- you are contributing to the Network's security
- Full node verifies and relay valid blocks and transactions
- You contribute to the transmission of blocks and transactions and ensure their validity
- contributing health to the network and helping network stay alive
- You have privacy and security in your transactions
- when you use a node as a wallet or have wallet connected to it your transactions are guaranteed to be valid and there is almost no possibilities that you can be defrauded.